

The background of the entire page is a halftone-style illustration of a mountain range. The mountains are rendered in various shades of green and brown, with a fine grid of dots creating a textured effect. A small, simple house is visible on the peak of one of the mountains in the upper right quadrant. The overall aesthetic is that of a vintage or artistic print.

THE BRAND

Inseparably linked to all the other Armani brands, Armani/Casa provides a platform to express Giorgio Armani's vision of interiors: intimate special places with a mood of emotional pleasure, somewhere to relax and entertain guests surrounded by beauty and elegance.

The purpose of the Armani/Casa research is to communicate an atmosphere, to dress everyday living spaces in the same way Armani fashion creations dress people.

The Armani/Casa aesthetic philosophy focuses on simple lines and perfect proportions, enriched by precious materials, refined finishes, and elegant textiles.

Today Armani/Casa offers a complete range of products for home furnishing: from furniture to accessories, from fabrics to wallcoverings, from kitchen systems to bathroom concepts.

FABRICS

INDOOR

For Giorgio Armani, dressing a home with fabrics is not different from dressing a person with clothes: it is all about finding the perfect balance between a refined elegance and the expression of one's inner self.

Armani/Casa collections constantly refer to fabrics and textures that, during the years, have become icons of the Giorgio Armani's aesthetics, like canneté, chevron and checkered motifs. The inspiration often comes from the fashion archives, through pieces whose exclusiveness is reinterpreted to weave fabrics suitable for upholstery. Nature is an important source of inspiration, not only for the design - flowers, leaves, shells, feathers - but also for the palette, ranging from bright colourful touches to neutral tones visible in the typical alternance of the seasons: all the shades of green, blue, grey, mud, sand. Last but not least, a subtle link to Art Déco and Eastern cultures is often visible: elements of the European heritage and of the Japanese culture blend with harmony and rigorousness with all the other influences typical of the Armani style.

VOLTERRA

CAT. A - TA047

Volterra finds its source of inspiration in the ashlar and cobblestones of the historic city of Volterra, in Central Italy. Further three-dimensionality is added by a canneté motif obtained through a matelassé technique. Volterra is available in typical Armani/Casa soft tones, as well as variants featuring green and indigo yarns. PALERMO

CAT. C - TC108

The yarns of the warp of Palermo are particularly thick, and are woven with viscose chenille wefts thanks to a special technique (an exclusive of Armani/Casa): the chenille is "caged" by the other yarns - so that its pile becomes invisible - but gives the fabric a smooth and pleasant hand. The high density of linen results also in a very resistant fabric (80'000 Martindale). The mélange effect of some colour variants is given by the dyeing process carried out on the single yarns, which also feature typical "knots" due to their thickness and the mix of fibers they contain.

WALLCOVERINGS

INSPIRED MOODS

Inspired Moods is the wallcoverings collection by Armani/Casa dedicated to the concept of evasion. Themes inspired by literature and poetry become alive on supports made with precious techniques, through large-format designs able to dress any room with evocative images, exotic reflection and enveloping atmospheres.

As often happens in the Armani world, the source of inspiration is reworked and filtered through a particular sensitiveness that confers a refined look to the final product.

DICKINSON

INSPIRED MOODS 1

The poems by Emily Dickinson (1830-1886) made her garden famous worldwide, thanks to its seasonal variations that were a constant source of wonder and inspiration. The same wild flowers loved by the writer were transposed on this wallcovering almost in a pictorial way, animated by the flight of dragonflies to give naturalness and dynamism. Developed in different colors, this wallcovering is available in two options on fil posé in silk and three on silk and metallic fibers.

Repeating profiles of low mountains softly fade into the background of the wallcovering, creating a fascinating infinite effect. The transitions between different tones create a rich and elegant appearance, where the subject becomes a mere suggestion given by the color palette. Made on a silk and metallic fiber support, the wallcovering recalls the Orient not only through the graphic design - simple yet highly evocative - but also thanks to the name, a tribute to Japanese poet Matsuo Basho (1644-1694), considered the greatest master of haiku poetry.

SHAKESPEARE

INSPIRED MOODS 1

This is a variation on the theme of Macbeth, already part of the Precious Fibers collection of wallcoverings by Armani/Casa, where the protagonist is the trompe-l'oeil of a deciduous forest depicted with tapestry taste. The subject is taken from the famous episode contained in the eponymous tragedy by William Shakespeare (1564-1616), where the Birnam wood seems to "walk" towards Macbeth's castle to predict his end. The author is tributed with four new tone-on-tone proposals, made on silk and metallic fibers.

INSPIRED MOODS 1

Sand dunes depicted with photographic realism were transposed on this wallcovering in two colour variations, both defined by the use of natural raffia on a silver foil base. Thanks to the choice of tone-on-tone palettes, the landscapes seem to fade delicately towards the horizon, enhancing the depth of the design. This wallcovering is dedicated to Lebanese writer Khalil Gibran (1883-1931), in whose works deserts landscapes of his homeland are often recurring.

The sinuous shapes of cliffs and their stratified stones are the inspiration behind this wallcovering, where the landscape subject is conceptualized through the use of simple lines and the support in natural raffia on a silver foil base. The literary reference is to Enoch Arden, a narrative poem by Alfred Tennyson (1809-1892) where the sea is at the same time the main setting of the story as well as one of the main characters. The palette recalls, depending on the tones, different natural elements like rocks, water, or the vegetation.

PRECIOUS FIBERS

Representing a journey into the exotic and dreamlike, the Precious Fibers collections feature designs named after operas and ballets. Sophisticated materials like silk, metallic yarns, linen and ramie are used to create wallcoverings epitomising the Armani timeless elegance. Precious Fibers dress spaces with patterns expressing delicate transitions (watery blurs, tone-on-tone shades and trompe-l'oeil effects) as well as vibrant contrasts (bold colour accents, graphic and nature-inspired designs). The rich variety of techniques used in these collections - from traditional to most innovative ones - highlights the constant search of the brand for quality and ultimate luxury.

A wide range of plain variants and optional details, like metal profiles and intertwined trimmings, add a refined touch.

"Nabucco" is the popular name of Nabucodonosor, one of the greatest operas by the Italian composer Giuseppe Verdi, a milestone of classical music first performed in Milan at La Scala theatre in 1842. To celebrate the deep link of this opera with the history of the city, the wallcovering reproducing Giorgio Armani's favourite pattern - the streaked texture of onyx slabs - was named after it. Nabucco is also the wallcovering that Mr. Armani chose for the decoration of his boutiques around the world. MADE IN ITALY.

Oberon owes its name to the Elven king from A Midsummer's Night Dream by William Shakespeare. The contrast between appearance and reality is a pivotal element of the plot, and it is the key feature of this wallcovering: a classic Art Déco motif, normally depicted using geometric fan-shaped modules, is actually created by the repetition of a shell silhouette. Typical patterns of the folklore are reinterpreted with a contemporary look, with branches and pomegranates printed on a precious Indian silk. AM AHL

PRECIOUS FIBERS 3

This wallcovering reinterprets a classic animalier motif, featuring crocodile scales, in a modern way and evoking exotic places. The pattern, typical of fashion and luxurious leather goods, becomes the starting point for the rich linen background. The name is a tribute to Amahl and the Night Visitors (1951) by the Italian composer Gian Carlo Menotti, which shares with this wallcovering the union of tradition and innovation: in fact, this opera – the first ever conceived for television – presents a plot that changes the usual point of view on the journey of the Magi in the Holy Land.

LORELEY

PRECIOUS FIBERS 3

For the making of this wallcovering – dedicated to Loreley (1890), opera by Alfredo Catalani – the choice was to use the ancient technique of fil posé, made even richer by the use of silk threads, which is rare for this production process. The colour palette alternates vivid and pastel tones, neutral gradients and fluid shades inspired by the plot of the opera itself, whose protagonist is a girl turned into a fairy after the wedding to the Rhine river: spells and watery reflections define an oniric atmosphere, celebrated by this wallcovering where the design comes from the reinterpretation of an ikat effect in macro-scale.

COPPÉLIA

PRECIOUS FIBERS 3

The design of this wallcovering, featuring a very realistic trompe-l'oeil effect, is taken from the image of a real velvet drapery located in a prestigious historical palace. The marvelous curtain is linked to the one in the enchanted workshop described in the ballet Coppélia (1870) by Arthur Saint-Léon, where the eponymous protagonist is a beautiful mechanical doll, whose maker keeps jealousy in his shop. Printed on silk/metallic yarns, this wallcovering is completed by a range of rich trimmings developed to emphasize the joints. MADE IN ITALY.

TURANDOT

PRECIOUS FIBERS 3

The last opera by Giacomo Puccini, Turandot (1926), stands out for the setting at the Chinese imperial court. The taste for exotic and the richness of the court are tributed by the design of the wallcovering with the same name, which presents a shagreen motif – a classic of Armani's aesthetics, but also a symbol of prestige and refinement in Eastern countries since the most ancient times – on a silk and metallic yarns background. The texture in relief is obtained thanks an accurate screen printing process directly on silk fibers that uses 3D-expanding inks, an absolute novelty for Armani/Casa. MADE IN ITALY.

WALLCOVERINGS

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS

The Graphic Elements collections feature metallic effects and elaborate textures that create a harmonious marriage between design and materials like linen gauze, raffia and fil posé. Inspirations and names come from natural elements and landscapes, including Mediterranean islands - among which Pantelleria, Giorgio Armani's favourite, occupies a special place.

To complete the collection, Japanese kimonos and tsubas - parts of traditional Japanese swords - together with geometric patterns and details taken from the world of textiles - like moiré and pleated fabrics - result in beautifully refined décor.

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 3

One of the four major islands in the archipelago, Kyushu is considered the birthplace of Japanese culture. This wallcovering plays with three-dimensionality to recreate large enamelled tiles, in two versions emphasized by the use of particular techniques. The metallized version is obtained thanks to a 3D print on a non-woven base coupled with silver foil, which gives a satin effect to the final product; here, joints in between the tiles are matt. The second version, instead, has a shinier appearance thanks to a lacquer-effect print on a non-woven gauze, which emphasizes the grid. MADE IN ITALY.

YAKUSHIMA

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 3

The intricate forest covering the island of Yakushima inspired this wallcovering, where the mazy design is created by wide intertwining ribbons. The support is the same non-woven gauze on matt support featured in Kyushu, printed with inks in relief to create the texture; after that, a final laminated effect with platinum, gold and silver is added only on the parts in relief, to emphasize the materic effect and give it a more precious look. MADE IN ITALY.

HONSHU

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 3

Honshu, the largest of Japanese islands, is rich in typical traditions. Among those, the one of origami occupies a special place in local culture. The ancient art of folding paper is repropesed through the design of never-ending paper ribbons, folding and intersecting each other on the whole surface of the wallcovering. The design is obtained through a print with matt inks in relief, contrasting with the background made of a metallic silver gauze on a non-woven base. MADE IN ITALY.

HOKKAIDO

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 3

Macro-scale rhombuses are the protagonists of Hokkaido, a wallcovering where the impactful design is obtained through a print of a metallic silver gauze on a non-woven base. The bold geometry is a direct reference to fashion and reposes the main theme of the Giorgio Armani Privé collection of haute-couture for Spring-Summer 2023. Another link to the world of textiles can be found in the three-dimensional vertical lines marking the non-woven support, which recall the different threads and yarns composing a fabric. A further touch of refinement is given by the higher transparency of the print in defined areas, which make the metallic foil more visible and hence more light reflective. MADE IN ITALY.

WALLCOVERINGS

REFINED STRUCTURES

The Refined Structures collections take inspiration from the vast universe of Armani/Casa design. Thanks to specifically conceived production techniques, the vinyl support is used strategically to recreate three-dimensional textures and rich material effects.

Nature is one of the main protagonists with its bamboo forests, ginkgo leaves and flourishing oak branches. Fashion is present with the iconic patterns of the Armani style – canneté and chevron – as well as the precious embroideries by Giorgio Armani Privé, the typical irregularities of shantung silk and the defining pattern of moiré finishing. Trompe-l'oeil and boiserie effects recall the aesthetic of antique wallcoverings, reinterpreted in a contemporary way; intertwined motifs celebrate craftsmanship and traditional handwork, through textures evoking exquisite techniques like straw marquetry and Japanese tatami.

LOUVRE

Louvre takes its name from the famous royal palace located in the heart of Paris: Armani/Casa dedicates to this remarkable residence the wallcovering featuring one of the most iconic Giorgio Armani's motifs, the canneté. This dichotomy echoes in the wallcovering with the same name, where a checkered motif is coupled with a shagreen leather print. MADE IN ITALY.

BELGRAVIA

REFINED STRUCTURES 2

The borough of Belgravia, in London, is famous for the white palaces in Neoclassical style that express a mood of rigorous elegance. The seeming simplicity of the architecture, which appears at first glance, is actually a dynamic series of marbles and stuccos, statues and decorative motifs. This wallcovering follows this concept of "unexpected detail": the background, based on a play of large tiles of streaked marble, is crossed horizontally at the top and at the bottom by a contrasting frame with chevron motif. Once more, the wallcovering becomes the occasion to transform key elements of the Armani style like stones and the textile design. The range is coordinated with a printed version with marble tiles only. MADE IN ITALY.

All colours and textures visible in the pictures - including furniture, rugs, wallcoverings, fabrics and finishes - may not correspond to the real products. Woods and stones in particular could present some slight variations depending on the production lot. This feature must be considered a distinctive trait of the natural material used.
